One Bread,
One Body

You belong to a faith community rich with diversity.

Our Archdiocese is rich in diversity. We seek to be a community of hospitality and welcome, to respect the diversity of people from many cultures, and to support ordained and lay leaders from all ethnic and language groups. Gifts of treasure shared through the One Bread, One Body Annual Appeal help fund ministries serving Catholics from minority communities. To date, this Archdiocesan-wide effort has raised $ . If you have not already, please let today be the day you make a commitment of treasure to the One Bread, One Body Annual Appeal. Pledge cards and pencils are available in the pews.

You, as a Catholic in the Archdiocese of Anchorage, are part of a faith community that is richly diverse. Our local Church includes people who are Alaska Native, Hispanic, Latin, Asian, Pacific Islander, African, European, military and civilian. Your Archdiocese encompasses parishes and missions in rural and remote communities, some off Alaska's road system. Of 29 parishes and missions, 21 are outside Alaska's largest urban center.

Your gift of treasure, shared through the 2008 One Bread, One Body Annual Appeal, helps fund ministries that serve Catholics from minority communities, and supports parishes & missions in remote and rural communities. You help ensure that children, youth and adults of all cultures have opportunities to deepen their faith, engage in the life of the Church and receive the welcome and hospitality they deserve—wherever in Alaska they live.

THANK YOU for considering sharing a gift of your treasure in support of the ministries of our local Church! Your contribution helps further work Jesus has called us to do.
