IN SERVICE TO THE PASCHAL MYSTERY

COMING SOON, August 6 & 7, the Music Ministry is invited to a prayer service concert at 7pm Friday in St. John's Church, Homer. Also, there is a workshop by Bob Hurd on Saturday from 9am-3pm.

Liturgical music is a ministry because it serves something beyond itself—the telling of the paschal story—Christ's living, dying and rising for us. Music ministers are bearers of Christ's story, Christ's word, to others. This workshop will explore how we can become better ministers of the paschal mystery. As we explore these questions Bob will give many musical examples.

All those involved in the music ministry or who would like to be, you are invited. Please let us know if you plan on going for a luncheon on Saturday; There are rides available both Friday evening and Saturday morning from Soldotna; housing will be provided for those wanting to stay overnight on Friday. We just need to know the numbers by today, July 25th. Bob Hurd is a composer for the OCP company, of which we use their music for our liturgies.

Please see Marlys for any questions or to register at 262-5542.

*From all that dwells below the skies,
Let faith and hope with joy arise,
Let beauty, truth, and good be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.*

RUMMAGE SALE

Our World Youth Day teens will travel to Madrid, Spain in August of 2011 for a pilgrimage with the Pope. We will host a WYD Rummage Sale from 10 - 4 on August 6 & 7, 2010 to raise funds. If you have items you would like to donate, our volunteers will be accepting them during the week prior to the sale on August 2- 5. The Redemptorist Center is open from 10:00am to 2:00pm for your goods. If you have questions, you are welcome to contact Tonilyn at 262-8478. Thank you.

ATTENDED AT LEAST ONE
TEEN EVENT LAST YEAR

WE NEED YOU! Let us know what you thought about last year's Teen Events. Please pickup, fill out and return a Teen Event Survey from the teen board in the lobby. Return your filled out form by the weekend of July 24-25 in the slot marked "Filled In." This survey will help us prepare for the upcoming year's events. If you have question please call Tonilyn Spring 262-8478 or Brenda Alhberg 262-5432.

AMAZING!

Vanessa Williams is from Kasilof, Alaska. She is a 2005 Skyview graduate, a 2009 University of Oregon graduate, and a lifelong member of our parish, as are her parents, Rob and Krys Williams. Vanessa is applying for continuing education to become a Nurse Practitioner. Vanessa was accepted in the IE3 Global Internship/Child Family Health International Program. She went to Cape Town and Durban, South Africa for 3 months earlier this year. A presentation by Vanessa on her experiences and pictures of the area will be shown during hospitality after the 10am Mass on Sunday, August 1st in O'Neil Hall. Please join us.

A GATHERING

The parish picnic has been scheduled for Saturday, August 7th after the 5pm Mass. Lots of help is wanted for the preparation of this event. Needed are: individuals for the set up, take down, preparation of food (hot and cold), and, of course, serving. If you can help with any of these areas, please contact Pat Murray at 262-7801. The hot dogs and hamburgers are provided by the church. Sounds yummy! PARISHIONERS ARE ASKED TO BRING EITHER A SALAD OR HOT DISH TO SHARE. Games for the children will be coordinated by Heather Stockton who may be reached at 260-6581 to offer help with this amusement.

The Covenant House is gathering items for their "Job Search" closet. They are specifically in need of black shoes and black belts in all sizes for both young men and young women. The girls especially need shoes with low to no heels (flats). They also are in need of any clothing for job searching purposes. There is a basket in the foyer to put items in until August 1st. May God Bless.

Now is the Time!

Our Parish will soon begin a new year of journeying with people who are interested in joining the Catholic Church. This faith journey process is called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults or RCIA. We just recently finished one of the most exciting years in our Parish's history with many people joining the Church last Easter. Again this year we have inquirers asking about the RCIA process. We look forward to another grace filled year of growing spiritually along with our inquirers.

Who should participate in the RCIA?

The whole Church community should participate! We do this by our daily life....living out the life and teachings of Jesus Christ. Through our example others are called to "Come and See".

Do you have a friend, co-worker or family member who has asked you about the Catholic Church?

Now would be a good time to invite them to come to Mass with you. Tell them about the RCIA. There will be an invitation in our bulletin each week to come join this process. Please see that they get this invitation.

Are you interested in joining this process?

If you are not baptized, were baptized in another Christian church or were baptized a Catholic but have not received the Initiation Sacraments (Baptism, Confirmation & Eucharist), please call to sign up and be part of the RCIA process this year.

Do you have children who have not received the Initiation Sacraments?

If your children, over the age of 7, have not received the Sacraments, please call to sign them up for the RCIC (Rite of Christian Initiation of Children) process.
