STEWARDSHIP

“10 Things God Won’t Ask You on That Day“:

1. God won’t ask you what kind of car you drove. He’ll ask you how many people you drove who didn’t have transportation.
2. God won’t ask the square footage of your house. He’ll ask you how many people you welcomed into your home.
3. God won’t ask you about the clothes you had in your closet. He’ll ask you how many people you helped clothe.
4. God won’t ask you what your highest salary was. He’ll ask you if you compromised your character to obtain it.
5. God won’t ask you what your job title was. He’ll ask you if you performed your job to the best of your ability.
6. God won’t ask you how many friends you had. He’ll ask you how many people you befriended.
7. God won’t ask you in what neighborhood you lived. He’ll ask you how you treated your neighbors.
8. God won’t ask you about the color of your skin. He’ll ask you about the content of your character.
9. God won’t ask you why it took you so long to seek salvation. He’ll lovingly take you to your mansion in heaven.
10. God won’t have to ask you how many people you spread this message to. He’ll already know.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's second reading Saint Paul's final appeal is a call for unity. God created that unity. Good stewards who share Christ's life in the Eucharist belong to each other, just as God in the three persons of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit enjoy unity. We are an intimate part of God's divine bond, God's family. Saint Paul maintains that we ought to act that way. In the Church there is a bond of family, yet plenty of room for variety. Christian Stewards use their uniquely varied gifts to live a Trinitarian Faith, in unity, promoting Christ's peace and justice. How do we promote unity in our parish?
