REFLECTION

To be bold as St. Peter requires deep love and a wild passion that cannot be tamed. St. Paul had the same unstoppable and unquenchable desire to boldly proclaim Jesus' love and message. Jesus asks: "Who am I?" What is your answer? If Jesus is a friend to you be a better friend in your listening this week. If Jesus is brother, mend a relationship within your family. If Jesus is redeemer, reconcile a shattered piece of your heart. The nouns we use to describe our knowing of Jesus must then also become verbs to live out that knowing in the world.

HEALTH MINISTRY OUTREACH

OLPH is hosting a Foundations of Faith Community Nursing course facilitated by Providence Alaska foundation and the Alaska faith Community Nurse Resource center at Providence .

The course is 7 sessions total on the following dates; September 11-14 and September 26-28.

Faith communities are places of hope and healing. People turn to them for ongoing connection and encouragement. A health ministry focuses on the needs of the people it serves, both members and the community at large. The major focus of the course is related to the faith community nurse, who is an Alaskan licensed registered nurse with advanced education in the specialty of faith community nursing.

If you are interested or have questions, please contact JANE at 262-9009.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 29th

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, Apostles. It is appropriate for us to commemorate these two pillars of our Church. St. Augustine said some 1,600 years ago: "Both apostles share the same feast day; for these two were one, and even though they suffered on different days they were as one... Let us embrace what they believed: their life, their labors, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith." On this Solemnity in 2013, Pope Francis included in his sermon the three reasons he rejoices at the lives of Sts. Peter and Paul. In the Gospel Peter proclaims his faith in stating, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." His Holiness pointed out the first reason is faith, "Faith in Christ is the light of our life as Christians." He detailed the second reason as love. He cited Paul from the second reading saying, "I have finished the race; I have kept the faith." Then he challenged each of us: "It is your task to go outside of yourselves in the love and service of the holy people of God." His final reason was unity (not uniformity he explained). He detailed himself as the successor of Peter, and as Paul as well. Pope Francis felt each of them and each of us is part of the great mosaic of the Church. Viewed individually, we are not defined, but all together as the Church, we present a clear picture of God's plan. Are you, as a steward, fulfilling your part to present the Church as one?

SUMMER EXCURSIONS

We will have our first summer excursions outing on Sunday, June 29th. We will leave the parking lot of the church at 11am and journey to St. John Neuman's Mission Church in Cooper Landing for a 12:30pm Mass followed by a tour of the grounds and lunch with the parish. Anyone interested may join us. We just need to know the numbers for transportation. Sign up Sheet is on the bulletin board.
