REFLECTION

What made you happiest as a child? As you remember and possibly enact those childhood moments bring God into them.

Today's account of the Gospel also seems to call for a game of hide and seek with a child. In the lightness of God hide your burdens in God's hands and seek his grace when you are found.

HEALTH MINISTRY OUTREACH

OLPH is hosting a Foundations of Faith Community Nursing course facilitated by Providence Alaska foundation and the Alaska faith Community Nurse Resource center at Providence .

The course is 7 sessions total on the following dates; September 11-14 and September 26-28.

Faith communities are places of hope and healing. People turn to them for ongoing connection and encouragement. A health ministry focuses on the needs of the people it serves, both members and the community at large. The major focus of the course is related to the faith community nurse, who is an Alaskan licensed registered nurse with advanced education in the specialty of faith community nursing.

If you are interested or have questions, please contact JANE at 262-9009.

ADORATION OPENING

Why not enjoy our daylight hours with our Lord!?! There is an adoration opening for the 4:00pm – 5:00pm Thursdays and Fridays at 12 midnight until 1am starting this week. If you are available to try it out or do it for a few weeks or the summer, please call Maria @ 262-1703. Thanks.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE

29th

"Take my yoke upon you and learn from me... for my yoke is easy, and my burden light." With these words of relief and comfort, Jesus calls us to be one with Him so that He can share in our own burdens, our own trials and tribulations. There is a deeper meaning for us if we understand the comparisons to life in Jesus' time. When training a young ox, the owner would often attach the calf to an older, more experienced ox that was accustomed to both the yoke and the weight of pulling the burden. Jesus is encouraging us to share our tests with Him by taking on the yoke and allowing Him to assist us with our troubles and difficulties. Often we point out that one of the basics of stewardship is to live a God-centered life rather than a self-centered life. The Lord's message is that in living this way, our lives, and especially the distressful aspects of our lives, become something that He can bear more easily. Of course, we have to be willing to be His disciples and to commit our lives to serving Him and others. In that way, the Lord will truly give us rest. Jesus' spirit, dwelling within us, will genuinely give us life.

SUMMER EXCURSIONS

On Sunday, we had our first excursion to St. John Newman's mission church in Cooper Landing.

The parish welcomed us with a potluck picnic giving us an opportunity to get to know their small community. Father Tero, the history buff he is, shared many interesting facts about the area and church there. We enjoyed our afternoon with them.

Our next excursion is to Homer on July 28th. We look forward to others joining us. This time a visitor from Fairbanks/Spain joined us also. Won't you consider it next time?

ONE BREAD ONE BODY: ANNUAL APPEAL

The annual one Bread/One body annual appeal has ended for this year. However, you may still donate until the end of the year to this campaign. The important part is that we all try to participate in whatever way we can to support the Archdiocese programs for our church. At present we are at 77% of our goal, with eighteen percent of our parish participating.

To those who have donated, thank you for your generosity.
