This weekend, we will take up the annual Service Collection which equally supports Peter's Pence, Catholic Relief Services, the Church in Latin America, and the Church in Africa.

This is an important collection that helps four Catholic organizations working in areas devastated by war or natural disasters.

Please consider giving generously.

PERPETUAL GARAGE SALE

Please keep us in mind as you are cleaning, disposing of or downsizing this summer. Bring your treasures to the Redemptorist Center for the Perpetual Garage Sale with proceeds to various needs/ministries of the church.

Please drop your items off at the entrance to the Redemptorist Center. The next session of garage sales will be from July 7th - 8th and 13th - 14th with the proceeds to the new church sign. There is a need for help on Wednesdays at 10am of the week of the sales, to organize and straighten new items.

Please contact Alice for further info: 260-8080.

If you would be able to help with the garage sales themselves, please sign up on the sheet on the bulletin board, even if for only a few hours, that would be appreciated.

LITURGY PRESENTATION

Fr. Ken Hannon, OMI will be visiting with us during the month of July. He is a liturgist who teaches at the Oblate School of Theology in San Antonio, Texas. He will be giving a presentation on Thursday, July 7th at 7pm in Fireweed on the theology behind the Tabernacle, its meaning, history of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and the essence of the location within the church body. Please join us.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 25TH

We are reminded in today's readings that we are human, and that as a result of that we are sinners, and we inherit that sin from the very beginning, from Adam. St. Paul points that out in our Second Reading from Romans 2. Were you aware that in Hebrew the name Adam means "humanity?"

In today's Gospel Reading from Matthew, Jesus also reminds us of the fact that we are sinners, but He also prompts us to remember that one of the reasons we sin is because we fear other humans and the consequences of living out our faith more than we fear the Lord Himself. Jesus says, "...do not be afraid of those who kill the body, but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna."

"Gehenna" is translated in some Bible versions as "Hell." What the Lord is trying to communicate to us may be that we probably tend to fear earthly matters and earthly people more than we fear God. If we are "killed" by someone or something on earth it is the body only which dies. However, shrinking back from God's call can have eternal consequences.

"Saving grace" and being saved are probably not thoughts on which we like to dwell, but they are real, and we need to recognize that. St. Alphonsus Liguori wrote, "The saved are few, but we must live with the few if we would be saved with the few. O God, too few indeed they are; yet amongst those few I wish to be."

SEMINARIAN DINNER

Save the Date!!! Come out on August 10th 2017 and meet the current group of seminarians – your future priests. Enjoy dinner and learn about a day in the life of a seminarian. Bring your wallet and your tennis shoes for the lively Dessert Dash!

OBOB 2017

The people of our faith community have pledged ($31,575) to this year's One Bread, One Body Annual Catholic Appeal. If you haven't already, please join this effort to nurture the ministries of your local Church.

Make your pledge securely online at www.archdioceseofanchorage.org/donate.

Our assessed goal for the One Bread One Body campaign is $33,553. As of this week, we are at $31,575 from 49 pledges. Please continue to discern your part in this campaign. Remember it's not the amount pledged, but just the fact that you do participate in this campaign to serve the wider church of the Archdiocese of Anchorage.
