THANK YOU

We had a wonderful family gathering last Sunday. The level of participation from setting up the venue (inside and outside) name tags, all liturgy participants from every parish, food preparation and serving and cleanup. It was amazing to come together as family, renew old acquaintances and share fun.

We look forward to next year.

RECTORY CLEANING

As we prepare to welcome our new pastor, Father Patrick Brossamer from St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish in Anchorage, we have scheduled a deep clean of the rectory living space on July 1st and 2nd, beginning at 8:30am, we will begin the process.

We are needing assistance to do this. Please check the bulletin board and see what you can sign up to help with.

Some of the projects can be done at a different time: such as windows, both inside and out. We realize this is a busy time for everyone, but with many hands it will not take much time.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT FOR

THE WEEK OF JUNE 16TH

Today we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity. What we are commemorating is a central reality of our Christian faith, that God is Trinitarian in nature — three distinct persons in one God.

The Church calls this truth a mystery, as indeed it is. Some have said that "mystery" in this context is "not a wall to run up against but an ocean in which to swim." Contemplating the "ocean depths" of this mystery can make us humans feel so small, and almighty God so far from us. Yet nothing could be further from the truth as today's readings demonstrate.

In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that God is intimately connected to us. "The love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us." God wants to live in the very depths of our being and in all the intimate details of our lives if we will let Him.

And in the Gospel from St. John, we learn that God holds back nothing of Himself from us. Jesus tells His disciples (this includes us!) that the Holy Spirit "will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything the Father has is mine." Thus we find ourselves drawn right into the midst of this Trinitarian love. In fact, if the mystery of Holy Trinity is an ocean which to swim, the "water" that makes up that ocean is love.

What, then, should be the response of the Christian steward to this sublime mystery? All we can do is worship and offer our lives back to God in total gratitude for calling us to live in the richness of such unfathomable love.

SECOND COLLECTION

There will be a second collection at Mass on Saturday, June 29th and Sunday, June 30th for the departing Oblate priests. Fathers Roger, Tom and Ron are departing for new assignments, destinations, and challenges, around July 1st.

The Order of Oblates have served our local parishes for the last 11 years. We would like to offer a donation from our parish to them, both as a thank you for their dedicated service, as well as some assistance in the transition to a new destination and beginning, for each of them. In addition to the second collection there will be a basket available in the foyer if you'd like to express your appreciation to one of the priests individually.

Our parish has been served well over the years by these fine men, and they are appreciated. Safe travels and Godspeed to each of them.
