From the collection on June 9th at the Western Peninsula Catholic Mass/Picnic gathering $4,103.60 will be given to Freedom House for their outreach ministry.

We are grateful to all the parishioners from all the Catholic Churches on the peninsula who were so generous.

In addition, the ACYC students who were participating in outreach ministries here that week had made 8 fleece tied blankets to be used by the guests at the Freedom Houses for men and women here in Soldotna.

If you have not yet pledged your support, it's not too late! Please join your fellow parishioners in helping to make possible the vital work of your Archdiocesan Ministries. Make your pledge securely online at www.archdioceseofanchorage.org/donate. Pledges and donations are accepted until December 31, 2019, and will count toward the parish goal.

RECTORY CLEANING

As we prepare to welcome our new pastor, Father Patrick Brossamer from St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish in Anchorage, we have scheduled a deep clean of the rectory living space on July 1st and 2nd, beginning at 8:30am, we will begin the process.

We are needing assistance to do this.

Please check the bulletin board and see what you can sign up to help with.

Some of the projects can be done at a different time: such as windows, both inside and out. We realize this is a busy time for everyone, but with many hands it will not take much time.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK OF JUNE 23RD

Today, we observe the Solemnity of the of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This beautiful feast celebrates the gift of the Eucharist, which the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches is the source and summit of our Christian faith. "For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ Himself" (CCC 1324).

The very word, Eucharist, means "thanksgiving" or "gratitude," and so this feast is especially meaningful to all of us who are striving to live as grateful stewards of all God's blessings to us. Surely the Eucharist is the greatest of all blessings because it is not only from God, it is God — the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Today's second reading from St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians reminds us of the depths of love our Lord has shown us in the gift of the Eucharist, recalling Christ's words at the very first Eucharistic celebration. "The Lord Jesus... took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, 'This is my body that is for you.'" In that moment, and at every celebration of the Mass thereafter, Jesus gives us His very Self in an act of complete humility and perfect love. How can we possibly show our gratitude for such a sublime gift?

We can receive the gift of the Eucharist with the greatest possible reverence and love. And, following our Lord's example, we can give ourselves generously to others in the week ahead.

SECOND COLLECTION

There will be a second collection at Mass on Saturday, June 22nd and Sunday, June 23rd for the departing Oblate priests. Fathers Roger, Tom and Ron are departing for new assignments, destinations, and challenges, around July 1st.

The Order of Oblates have served our local parishes for the last 11 years. We would like to offer a donation from our parish to them, both as a thank you for their dedicated service, as well as some assistance in the transition to a new destination and beginning, for each of them. In addition to the second collection there will be a basket available in the foyer if you'd like to express your appreciation to one of the priests individually.

Our parish has been served well over the years by these fine men, and they are appreciated. Safe travels and Godspeed to each of them.

Potluck Farewell for Father Roger on Sunday, June 30th, after Mass. You are asked to bring your favorite breakfast casserole to share that morning, as well as some fruit plates to share.
